

CHARLES A. RICHMAN

Charles A. Richman has worked at the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs (DCA) for 25 years and has served as Acting Commissioner of the DCA on several occasions, most recently from July 2009 to February 2010. Assistant Commissioner Richman has more than 35 years of experience in New Jersey state government. Prior to joining the DCA, he held senior positions at the Board of Public Utilities, the State Energy Office and the New Jersey Department of Energy. His experience includes policy development in housing, energy and social service programs; evaluations of municipal operations; formulation of legislative strategies; preparation of department budgets and priorities; contract management; and supervision of operating divisions.